Introduction to the Litany

Mary lived a continual journey of Jesus' Passion. The Fathers of the Church describe the 'prophecy of Simeon to Mary' as more than simply the pronouncement of the sword piercing her heart; they tell us that Simeon revealed to Mary and Joseph the details of Jesus' Passion and death. This revelation through Simeon is central to what Mary carries and treasures in her heart as she and Joseph raise Jesus. They have been told God's Plan for His, and their, Son. In faith and obedience, they fulfill their duty to raise Jesus to fulfill His mission.

Jesus is the king who will bring about eternal victory. Joseph, who truly is Jesus' father, has a right of kingship above Jesus in their earthly, human life. Thus, it is right and just that Joseph die before Jesus carries out His mission of victory as the King of Glory. So, too, it is that Jesus will journey with Mary who is, at the same time, 'His mother' and 'The Mother' – both in His mission and in His Passion. Consequently, Simeon's prophecy is of the sword that will pierce Mary's heart, not Joseph's.

In God's Plan, Mary will journey her entire life according to the mystery of Jesus' Passion and death, and all this in accord with the Victory of Salvation of all the living. In God's mind and heart, she is Mother of All the Living, even from the moment of her Immaculate Conception.

Her journey as Mother of the Passion will take different forms and expressions throughout her own life. At the first, it is a passion of separation from her birth family in sacrifice to God's Temple and the fulfillment of the Old Covenant. Next, it will be a passion amidst the beauty and joy of her betrothal and marriage to Joseph and their life as family with Jesus. This will end with Joseph's death, soon followed by her journey in passion as Jesus 'goes forth from her' to His earthly mission of teaching, preaching, miracles, and being 'a sign of contradiction.' Next will be the deepest reality of the sword that pierces her heart as she journeys in unique cooperation with Jesus through His Passion and death; this will include the 'three days' of Jesus in the tomb. Following this is her passion of the great joy of Jesus' brief 40 days prior to the Ascension, followed by the journey of prayer for the coming of the Holy Spirit and the birth of the Church – which is both Christ's Body and the Eternal Spouse, Daughter, and Mother – Who will re-live the Passion of Christ until the end of time.

Mary is God's greatest type of His Church; as such, she will journey the Church's Passion with the most profound merit and faithfulness – the fruit of her perfect Fiat which she will make anew every day of her life – until her own return to God.

This is the Mother of the Passion who is acclaimed in this litany.

Let us pray:

O Mary, who journeyed the Passion of your Son throughout your life, especially taking care to preserve it whole and complete in your mind and in your heart, and who gave witness to Christ's salvation work through the gift of your Way of Sorrows;
obtain for us, in our crosses, so to unite ourselves to the suffering Christ's journey of the Cross that we may rise resplendent in virtue and holiness in the joy of the Eternal Resurrection.

Through Christ our Lord. Amen

Personal Reflections

*The Shadow of the Cross Falls
Where the Light of Victory Shines®*

Meditation

Mary carries the greatest of all crosses of all people, except for that of her Son. Her cross and that of Jesus are each singularly unique; at the same time, they are uniquely tied to each other in God's Plan such that one does not exist without the other.

As regards Mary's cross, it is fully God's work, and it, too, is at the heart of redemption and salvation. Her cross is so complete, and she carries it with such perfect fidelity to Grace and Providence, that, were it superimposed in front of Christ's, it would reflect His Cross with clear distinction while giving witness to an analogous perfection of glory.

Through her intimate and mystical cooperation with the redemption wrought by her Son, Mary merits to be the Mediatrix of all Grace and our Advocate, and it is thus that we can begin to know the degree of her participation in the Passion of Christ. At the same time, we recognise and honour that, while Jesus accomplished His Passion over one historical day, her journey as Mother of the Passion was the journey of an entire lifetime.

Our Lady, Mother of the Passion.
